I trace back to the Emigrant ancestor, so many of my records are too early for your needs. The best I can do is to send list showing that the Schutt records are not in the Old Dutch Church book of records of Kingston, N.Y. I go to Newark, N.J. to search, and will ask if they can suggest later data .

The above list must refer to two men both of whom married a Sara.

Dear Madam:-

Your letter was forwarded to me. In looking over the old records, I do not find an Abraham Schut born in 1798, 1794 - Elizabeth, Born Sept. 15, 1794, Daughter of Mynert Schut and Catherine Schut, witnesses were, Abraham Schut and Elizabeth Tradenberg.

Egje, Born March 9, 1800, Daughter of Mynert Schut and Catherine Schut, witnesses were, Abraham Schut and Egje Schutt.

These are baptism records I have copied. The spelling as is.

Yours,

R. D. Felts

Some where between Elizabeth born Sept. 15, 1794 and Egje born March 9, 1800 daughter of Mynert Schut and Catherine Schutt. Where is that some where. Do they have records of Schutts or of Worcester marriages that far back.

Ref. trees. "History of New Paltz, New York, and its old families, from from 1678, to 1820.

first edition 1903, and last which is more complete 1909.
New Paltz is near Kingston, N.Y. Author, Ralph de Ferris

By deed dated May 27, 1627, certain Indians conveyed to Louis DuBois and eleven associates the lands later comprised in the Palz patent, covering all of the present town of Lloyd, about two thirds of New Palz, one third of Esopus and one-fourth of Rosendale. This deed was confirmed by grant of patent from Gov. Edmund Andros covering the same territory, dated Sept. 27, 1677.

There were twelve grantees named in this patent, who were known as "The Patentees." The twelve were: Louis DuBois and his sons, Abraham and Isaac; Christian Deyo and his son, Pierre; the brothers, Abraham Hasbrouck and Jean, or John, Hasbrouck; the brothers Andre LeFevre and Simon LeFevre; Louis Bevier; Anthoine Crespel; and Hugo Frere.

These people were Huguenots and emigrated from France, in the religious persecutions which culminated in the massacre of St. Bartholomew in 1572 and later in the assassination of Henry IV in 1610 and in the revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685, into that portion of Germany known as the Palz or Palatinate, a little principality now incorporated in Baden and of which Mannheim on the Rhine was the capital, and came to America between 1660 and 1675, some of them, through England, after having spent some time there.

Hugo Frere, or Freer, was one of the last Patentees to Arrive at Kingston. The name is variously spelled, including: Frere, Freres, Frerers, Freer, Friere, Freeres, Freyer, Frear, Frayer and in some other variations. I believe all families with names of this variation are descendants of Hugo Freer, the Patentee, mentioned herein.

With regard to the Frere, Freer, Frayer, family:

I. Hugo Freer, the Patentee, married, first, Mary, or Marie Haye, in France, who died Dec. 8, 1693, and second Jannetje Wibaux. He left a will dated Jan. 4, 1697-8, and had seven children by his first wife, as follows:

1. Hugo Freer Sr. b. in France 1668
2. Abraham Freer, b. in France about 1670, m. Apr. 28, 1694, Haignies (Agnes) Site-Sorte, they had 12 children, among whom were sons, Hugo Ab., Abraham, Jr., Solomon, William and Philip.
3. Isaac Freer, born in France
4. Jacob Freer, b. in New Platz, N.Y.
5. Jean Freer, youngest son, born in New Platz, N.Y.
6. Mary Freer, b. in New Platz, N.Y.
7. Sarah Freer, b. in New Platz, N.Y.

taken from a lengthy article in Hartford Times, Sept. 2, 1939. signed C. N. K.

I wrote to C. N. K. in care of Hartford Times and find his name is Charles N. Kimball
Address: Sistersville, West Virginia

This is excerpt from his letter in reply to mine.

" In reply to your query relative to Geertruy Freer, who you write was the daughter of Abraham Freer, born about 1670, married Apr. 28, 1694, Haigues (Agnes) Titesorte, I will write that Mr. Le Fevre in his history of New Paltz states that Abraham and Agnes (Titesorte) Freer had twelve children, and names in the text only five sons, to wit: Hugo Ab., married in 1720; Abraham, jr., also married in 1720; Solomon, baptised Oct. 23, 1698; William married in 1729; and Philip, married in 1735. At page 528, Mr. Le Fevre gives the names of the children of Abraham Freer and Haigues Titesorte as follows:

1. Maeltje, born May 5, 1696.
2. Abraham, born Oct. 31, 1697.
3. Solomon, born Oct. 23, 1698. married Sept. 22, 1720
4. Willem, born Jan. 1, 1700.
5. Jelena, born Jan. 16, 1704.
6. Phillipus, born Aug. 16, 1706.
7. Sarah, born Oct. 12, 1707.
8. Naritje, born Sept. 11, 1709.
9. Jacomyntje, born Nov. 4, 1711.
10. Agien, born Apr. 11, 1714.
11. Johanna, born Nov. 13, 1715.
12. Catrynfien, born Jan. 11, 1719.

No other information is given about the children except that Abraham Freer built his house at Bontecoe before 1705 and after living there about fifteen years moved to Rhinebeck about 1720, where he died; that his sons scattered, one going to Dutchess County, N.Y., and another to Minisink.

Relative to Kaetza Freer, baptised Jan. 11, 1719, and whose father you write was also Abraham Freer, she is not mentioned in the history of New Paltz. She could not have been a daughter of Abraham Freer, Jr., since the latter was not married until 1720, and you write that Kaetza was baptised Jan. 11, 1719. Observe, please, in this connection that "Catryntjen", youngest child of Abraham Freer, above mentioned, is given as being born Jan. 11, 1719. Undoubtedly your Kaetza is the same as Catryntjen.

Without a doubt the line of your Kaetza is Abraham<sup>3</sup>, Hugo, Sr. 2, Hugo, the Patentee 1.

Who Geertrug is or was I do not know. You evidently from the above, confused the parentage of Geertrug and Kaetza although the father of both was a Abraham. Chas. N. Kimball
